Of Local Interest.

"Pollerticks" had full sway Monday. The glad hand was in evidence Monday, candidates being thick.

John Ballard has been sworn in as night policeman in place of Will West, who resigned.

Farmers are growing uneasy, as the bad weather is causing them to fall behind with work.

The entertainment given the Sunday school of the Christian church Monday afternoon was largely attended and greatly enjoyed.

The L. and N. pay car, the "bread wagon," as railroad men say, was here Sunday. This division has been paid on Sunday for several months.

F. W. Raines, of Cincinnati, who has recently traveled extensively in the far east, especially in Japan and China will speak at the Christian church Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 7 p. m. He will speak at Hubble in the afternoon.

Gov. Bradley writes The Record: "Take out that advertisement you have for my bank stock for sale. I sold it immediately after you printed the advertisement for a good price, and give The Record credit for the good sale." The clever gentleman is one of the few people of today who believe in "rendering honor to whom honor is due."

Can Pass in Safety. The Haselden-Robinson Hardware Co., has had a high plank fence erected between the engine house and court house. The wind came up there about fifty miles an hour, and the result was all the women took the other side of town, as the display of hostility was a serious proposition, especially with those of pipe stem underpinning.

Death of Noble Young Man. His many Lancaster friends were grieved to learn of the death of Andrew W. Buchanan, at Crab Orchard Monday. He was twenty-six years of age, and one of the most popular young men in Central Kentucky. He was a graduate of Centre College, and a lawyer of ability. To know "Andy" Buchanan was to admire him, his death is deeply deplored by a legion of friends. The funeral services were held at Crab Orchard Tuesday afternoon.

Nothing Yet. There have been no developments in the Rucker assassination case yet, and if the detectives have any clues they are keeping them quiet. We sincerely trust the officers are on to something, for if the murderer of Will Rucker goes unpunished it will be the greatest outrage Kentucky has ever permitted. Those of us living in the immediate vicinity understand the circumstances under which the murder was committed, but how we are to explain to the outside world that a murder can be committed under the nose of a big town and the murderer go unpunished is a proposition of large proportions.

Miserable Weather. The weather man may have worse brands in stock, but we doubt exceedingly if he can deliver meaner weather than the people of Central Kentucky have been undergoing for the past few weeks. Some days were so cold that business was at a standstill, while no one, who could get around it, ventured upon the icy streets. Every "oldest inhabitant" interviewed says it has been the hardest winter he has experienced. The good, old summer time is not far distant, thank heaven, and when the weather does "open up" there must be some tall hustling done by those of us dependent upon the sweat of our brow.

They're Up To Date. Among the new advertisers in The Record are the bustling firms of Romans & Elmore and the Haselden-Robinson Hardware Co., who take up considerable space in letting the people know what they have, and the further fact that they are out for business. J. R. Haselden retains his old space on this page to advertise his plumbing, roofing, guttering, etc. A man had as well try to do business without clerks as without advertising space in a news paper. Stop all the fakes, and useless waste on calendars, which result in nothing, and put your advertisements where people will read it. Yes, it costs money, but what is worth having is worth paying for.

About March 15th. Miss Ada Dickerson, of Nicholasville, was here this week seeing to final preparations of her room in which will be opened her handsome stock of millinery. She has been in the cities for several weeks, where, assisted by her trimmer, she purchased all the newest creations in the millinery line, and will be ready for business about the 15th of next month, the regular opening to occur a few days later. She recognizes the fact that to command trade, merchants must have the very best, and that too at reasonable prices, and will follow up the plan to the letter. She has engaged an expert trimmer, one of wide experience, and with the best line of goods the market affords asks a liberal share of your patronage.

The L. T. L. will meet at two p. m. in the Rest Room. All of the children in town are invited.

"Ugs," the negro sent to the Penitentiary recently for breaking in the depot, died in Frankfort Monday.

The helping hand Society of the Baptist church will meet next Saturday at half past two o'clock with Mrs. H. C. Herring, Richmond avenue.

Monday was cold and muddy, but a medium size crowd came in and trudged about, there being little business and scarcely no trading. February court is generally a poor one, and this was no exception.

Genuine Wisdom. "It is a wise Pittsburgh citizen who knows his own party," says the Philadelphia Press. It is a wiser citizen who knows no party when the public interests are at stake.—Ex

As we go to press, Mr. John McRoberts is dangerously ill at the home of his son, Mr. R. E. McRoberts, on Danville street. While his host of friends sincerely trust that his life will be spared, yet there is little chance of his recovery.

The pupils of Miss Anderson's room held an interesting contest in which the seventh grade represented the chief manufacturing cities in the United States and the sixth grade did the guessing. Arleen Mannix was the successful contestant.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. desire to extend a vote of thanks to Miss Jennie Lackey for her most efficient service in decorating and arranging entertainment for the valentine party. Also to thank Miss Bettie Anderson for the hand painted valentines donated.

Died in Stanford. The remains of Mr. Harry Dunn, of Lincoln county, were brought here Monday and buried in the Lancaster Cemetery. He was a brother of Mr. Alex. Dunn, of Danville, and an uncle of Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Messrs. John and Uriah Simpson of this city.

Nothing Done. The democratic county committee met Monday, at which time nearly all the candidates appeared and stated their views on the time of making nominations. There was a division of opinion, and the committee adjourned without taking any steps in the matter, but will take it up later on.

No Time to Lose. H. A. B. Marksburg & Son are busy this week preparing their exhibit of hemp, etc., for the Kentucky building at the World's Fair. Others intending to send exhibits had better stir their stumps, as there is not much time to lose. Garrard can send a better show than any county in the state if our people will go to work and prepare it. Get busy.

Old Fiddler Dead. The Stanford Journal notes death in that city of Armp Salter, the well known old colored fiddler. Armp has furnished inspiring strains for many of our older citizens, and some who now frown upon the dance have shaken their brogans to the notes of Armp's fiddle. He was a good old negro, and we hope has gone where he will be given a harp instead of a fiddle.

Take All Precautions. Smallpox is spreading over the state with remarkable rapidity, and notwithstanding the efforts by physicians continues to make its appearance in most every town in Central Kentucky. The health officers insist upon vaccination, but many fail to have the work done. It is mighty close to Lancaster, if you please, so a weather eye should be kept out. By the way, Judge Ford tells The Record he has had so many inquiries as to the law governing the disease that he is compelled to have the sections printed on a circular, which will be sent over the county. As we have the type standing, from which the circular was printed, we reproduce in this issue of The Record.

Will Open New Street. Mr. James I. Hamilton tells The Record that he will commence work, in the early Spring, upon a new street to run from Richmond avenue, just beyond Dr. Herring's through the old circus lot, to the Buckeye pike. This will open up some splendid building lots, besides give the people of the Buckeye and McCreary neighborhood an inlet to town without coming through Battle Row. Mr. Hamilton says he will reserve the right to reject any and all bids on lots, as he is determined that none but good people shall get the property, and thus assure a decent addition to the town. That he will freeze to this determination, the people earnestly pray, for the town is now almost surrounded by negro cabins which are not only unsightly, but absolute nuisances. The new street can be made a valuable addition to the town, and here's hoping that Mr. Hamilton will see to it that good people buy the lots. The Record has contended for such a street ever since the present editor took charge, as it is hard for the good people out in the Buckeye section to be compelled to pass through the Chute, and we are teeth and toe nail for anything that will get a street around it. The City Council should go its length in the matter. Let's have the new street, but no more like the "Chute," Middleboro', etc.

Father Bealer, of Nicholasville, will conduct Catholic services at the court house, the first Sunday in March. 2t

Judge Cantrill's Announcement. We call attention to the announcement of Judge Cantrill in this issue of The Record. Judge Cantrill is a gentleman learned in the law, has had much experience on the bench and will serve with ability and dignity. He says he is in the race to stay, and that his name will be kept prominently before the people is proven by his liberal use of printer's ink.

Death of Miss Dunn. Miss Ruth Ann Dunn passed peacefully into the great beyond at the home of Mr. Watkins, on Monday afternoon. Miss Dunn was the sister of Mr. Erasmus Dunn and had been sick several weeks. She was a good, true christian woman, and was endeared to all who knew her. She was laid to rest on Tuesday afternoon in the Lancaster Cemetery.

Should be Remembered. Should you have occasion to send a copy of some newspaper to an editor, you should not forget to mark around the article you wish noticed. Every editor gets a basketful of papers out of each mail, and he has not the time to read each item in all of them, especially if the paper is from a distance so if you want anything clipped or noticed, don't fail to mark the paper you send to the office.

Sales Aggregate $300,000.

Elizabethtown is not only the largest mule market in Kentucky, but the trade is increasing and growing like a house on fire. Mule buyers and mule traders from all parts of the South are flocking to the town like miners to a field where a rich gold deposit has been discovered, and the excitement among buyers to purchase a carload of the long-eared animals is kept well keeled up. One of our leading stockmen who has kept tab on the business reports that up to Monday sixty five carloads of mules have been shipped from Elizabethtown, and they represent an average value of $3,000 a car. This would aggregate $195,000. The trade is not over yet by any means, and it is likely that twenty or thirty more carloads will be shipped. This will probably put the mule sales for the season to $300,000. The profits of dealers have been very handsome, and Hardin county is richer by many thousands of dollars on account of the mule business.—Elizabethtown News.

Woods Has Big Trip. Mr. John W. Woods, of Marksburg, one of Garrard's prominent agricultural Captains of Industry, has just returned from business and pleasure trip to Asheville, North Carolina, where he spent a week or two with relatives. He devoted one entire day to viewing the wonders of the Biltmore estate, which consists of 145,000 acres near that city, owned by Mr. George W. Vanderbilt, of New York City, and on which is the magnificent and famous chateau of Biltmore, the private residence of that gentleman, erected at a cost of nine million dollars. As Mr. Woods is interested in livestock, he spent most of his time inspecting the herds of valuable thoroughbred horses, cattle, hogs, poultry etc., and in traversing the scenic roadways leading in every direction through the vast domain. It is hinted that Mr. Woods went down with the determination to buy the place outright, but, finding more land in the boundary than he thought there was, and seeing the house wouldn't suit because of its size and general construction, he abandoned the idea. However, this did not interfere with the pleasure of the trip, which, he declares, was worth twice the time and expense involved. The climate of North Carolina compares favorably with that of France and Italy, and one particular section of the state has the distinction of being classed among the few spots in the world where tuberculosis is practically unknown. At Asheville Mr. Woods had the good fortune to join a party of excursionists going to the coast for the purpose of inspecting some ancient ruins, which are said to mark the spot where Sir Walter Raleigh attempted to establish a colony on that shore in 1587. While walking about the place and kicking up the turf with the toe of his shoe he unearthed an old English case-knife, which bore on its handle a Sheffield brand, and which was in a very good state of preservation. The relic excited a lively interest among the party, some of whom wished to buy it from him, but declining all offers, Mr. Woods brought it back home with him and now has it stored away in his curio cabinet.

Additional Personals.

Mrs. Louis Landram was given a surprise party Tuesday evening by a number of friends.

Mr. Cliff Rainy and sister, Miss Mira, of Danville, and Mr. John Anderson of McKinney, attended the funeral of Miss Ruth Ann Dunn, Tuesday.

Unusual interest clustered around the basket ball game between the Richmond and Nicholasville girls last Saturday evening. The Nicholasville girls were winners 51 to 5. After the game the girls entertained at supper in honor of their guests. Elegant lunch was served, the dining room and table being decorated in Nicholasville colors, white and green. It was quite a pleasant affair.

What "Knocking" Will Do. We frequently hear the query, "Will the hotel and opera house be rebuilt?" The Record is in position to say "No," and we are able to say why. When the other house was built, our people will remember that there was all kinds of adverse criticism made not only upon the building but some went so far as to criticize the business judgment of the gentlemen furnishing the money to build the house. The promoters heard all these contemptible remarks, but went on with the work. After the house was completed this talk continued, people saying the house was not safe, would fall down, and all such idle rot that damaged the reputation to such an extent that not until Mr. Long had been here some months would the traveling public patronize the hotel as it should, and some people never did go into the opera house. When the building burned, the editor of this paper made up $1,500 in private subscriptions which was offered the hotel company, and it was then that we were told by several of the stockholders that under no consideration would they take further steps in the matter. One man went so far as to say he never intended to lay one brick on top of another in Lancaster. While we do not believe the stockholders took the right view of the case, let their feelings get the better of their judgement, yet we print this article to show what idle talk, adverse criticism and, to use a slang expression, "knocking," will do to hold back improvements and cause capitalists to keep their money stored away where it will not do them nor anyone else any good. While the Garrard hotel may not have been what it should be in construction, yet the talk done against it caused some of our most enterprising citizens to take back seats and do nothing further toward improving the town. This Spring we hope and believe other capitalists will put on foot improvements and enterprises, and our statements above are given to show "knockers" what their idle talk will do, and what it has done, so if you are inclined to throw cold water, keep a silent tongue, or, better still, move out of town.

CENTRAL RECORD.

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Lancaster, Ky., February 26, 1904.

The representative from Pike county introduced a bill in the Legislature to exempt printing machinery from taxation. While the press of the state does more than any other factor to build up Kentucky, in fact is the only organization which does pull for the state's advancement, yet the editors want no such law passed. If the solons will pass a bill which will make those owning printing offices pay up, it will bring enough money into every publisher's pocket to enable him to not only meet all his obligations but have a little "spending money" besides.

The Kentucky Legislature has made an appropriation to pay preachers for praying for it. The sum allowed looks pretty stiff, too. We would suggest that this job be let to the lowest bidder. Let each bidder state the length, breadth, and depth of the daily supplication, and, it might be best to have a sample prayer filed as an exhibit. As prayers offered on such occasions never ascend higher than the ceiling of the building in which they are made, we see nothing wrong in a little fun over the matter.

Bob Hughes, the bustling secretary of the Kentucky Exhibit Association, is a clever fellow, but his latest "exhibit" of nerve takes the bake shop. He writes to the country editors to know if any farmers have left in the newspaper offices specimens of agriculture, fruits, etc. If so, "please send them to us," etc. Wouldn't that jar your grand mother's preserves? Bob worked in a country office (this office, by the way) long enough to know that should the editors part with the provisions left on subscription they would soon starve. We may send a few cart loads of rejected manuscript, but rations, never.

All those crocodile tears now being shed by the people who vilified Hon. Mark Hanna during his life-time, make us tired, very tired. No prominent citizen had more mean things said about him, nor were more unjust criticisms ever heaped upon a man. The abuse was the result of jealousy, as the people, especially the prominent people, knew the distinguished statesman had more brains than any man in the nation.

The administration's purpose in trying to induce Russia and Japan to limit their sphere of hostilities to as small an area as possible may be a good and broad idea, but the president and his co-workers must bear in mind not overstep reasonable bounds, remembering that Uncle Sam's position in this trouble is a perch on the fence where he must stick to the end.

Editor Glenn, of the Madisonville Graphic, was "touched" for his railroad passes and wad of money, while en route to Florida, last week. There are two very surprising features in this occurrence, first, that a thief would tackle an editor, and, second, that an editor had any money to be robbed of.

The Somerset Journal, Seph Campbell's good paper, will soon install new machinery, type, etc., and blossom out a modern six-column folio. It will be printed semi-weekly, as usual, and continue to give its readers the best service. Here's wishing the clever and progressive editor all success.

A fashion journal says the large, wire bustle is again in style. And it evidently fills other long-felt wants during this sleety, slippery weather.

Makes The Hit.

Our good friend, Hon. Richard W. Miller, of Richmond, now representing his county in the Legislature, won more laurels as an orator, at the banquet given by the Louisville Board of Trade to the Kentucky Legislature while en route to the St. Louis Exposition. In referring to his effort which it terms an oratorical gem, the Courier-Journal says: R W Miller, of Richmond, was introduced by Mr. Ford, as a young man of specially brilliant attainments. Mr. Miller said in part:

"I do not know if this toast was assigned to me because I am in the habit of seeing the sun rise, or if it was because of the effort that is being made by Japan giving promise of a new civilization. It is a peculiar thing that wherever the Kentuckian goes he bears his separate and distinct mark. In the course of the sun's path he does not shine upon so glorious a country as old Kentucky. We have had enough of the strenuous life. The State is blessed beyond measure. In the counties that lie beyond the city, from which I come, the soil is burdened with mineral wealth and is always willing to give forth its wealth to the thrifty hand of hardy toil. Whether we come from Pennyville or Purchase, from Bluegrass or the mountains, we are never divided, but are all Kentuckians. I believe we are the inheritors of every deed, of every great achievement that ever went before us. Our children and our children's children will take up the greater work in a better and purer spirit than we have done. We know that the world grows better and that men grow kinder, and out of the confusion will come no poetic rhapsody, but a living, breathing, sentient thing, forgiving all that is unjust and starting down the highway to a horizon as broad as human hope."

Be Getting Ready.

This is a good time of the year for farmers to be getting ready for spring work, so that when the time for work comes no time shall be lost in preparation. Locations for tobacco beds should be selected and brush and weed for burning same be placed at hand. Plow gear should be looked up and missing or broken parts replaced. Plows, harrows, etc, looked after and repaired if necessary. Seed corn should be selected when the corn is gathered in the field, but if not done at that time, during the winter it should be attended to. If fencing is necessary this should be done when the weather will permit.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F J Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters which did me more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by McRoberts Drug Store. 1m

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr H Haggins, of Melbourne, Fla. writes: "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr Kings New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung disease by McRoberts Drug Store. Price 50c & $1.00. Trial bottles free. 1m

He who would be a leader must go before.

"Do It Today."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it today—and let that remedy be Dr Rosch's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. How Hyomei helps, Health

Says R E McRoberts.

Now that Hyomei can be obtained in nearly every town and city in the country, it is possible to buy from druggists a health giving climate, to be carried in the purse or pocket. By breathing it a few minutes four times a day you can soon cure grip, coughs, colds and even the worst and most chronic cases of catarrh.

R. E. McRoberts has seen so many remarkable cures made by the Hyomei treatment, that they sell it with the positive agreement to return the money if it fails to cure.

A complete outfit costs but $1, and consists of the pocket inhaler, medicine dropper and sufficient Hyomei to last several weeks.

It effects a cure in the worst catarrh troubles and if breathed at the commencement of a cold or the grip, will check it quickly and prevent sickness. Extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50c.

When breathed through the inhaler, the germ-killing and health-giving Hyomei goes to the most remote cells of the throat and lungs, killing all the catarrhal germs, soothing the irritated mucous membrane and vitalizing the blood with ozone.

At this season of the year, every one should have a Hyomei outfit to prevent and cure catarrhal troubles, and ward off attacks of grip, pneumonia and similar germ diseases. 1m

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce Hon. D. L. MORRIS, of Sevier County, as a candidate for Congress in the Eighth District, to succeed Hon G S Gilber, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Your support is earnestly solicited. 1f

For County Attorney.

We are authorized to announce R. L. DEYNT, son of a candidate for nomination for County Attorney, subject to the action of the Democratic party. 1f

For Supt. Public Schools.

Mrs Magie B. Gentry is a candidate for Supt. of Public Schools in Garrard Co., subject to the action of the democratic party. 1f

For County Attorney.

We are authorized to announce J E Robinson as a candidate for nomination for County Attorney, subject to action of the Democratic party. 1f

I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the docket of my court touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchises under the law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine. I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire. Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRELL.

Miss Albert A. Hillman has returned to her home in Broadhead.

Miss Lucile Cooper, of Stanford, has been the guest of Miss Angie Kinnaird.

Our little friend, Hudson Frisbie who has been quite sick is reported some better.

Miss Daisy Collier and Fannie Jennings, of Danville, have been guests of Miss Ann Hill.

Mr. Branham Beazley leaves this week for St. Louis where he is thinking of locating.

Miss Lizzie Hudson has returned from a visit to relatives in Danville and Nicholasville.

Louisville Times:—Miss Violet Presson after a visit to friends in Lancaster and Paint Lick, returned home Monday.

Editor E. C. Walton, of the Stanford Interior Journal, snatched a few days well-earned rest last week by visiting his brother, Thomas, in Atlanta.

Miss Mary Gill entertained Thursday evening at her beautiful home on Stanford avenue. The rooms were decorated with palms, white roses and pink carnations. The refreshments of ices and cake carried out the color scheme of pink and white. Miss Gill proved an ideal hostess.

The many friends and admirers of Dr. E. H. Pearce are delighted to know that he is about free from a stubborn attack of la grippe, which has caused him trouble for some two or three weeks. The doctor is a frequent visitor to the Record office, and his delightful presence is the source of much comfort and pleasure to the entire force.

Senator George T. Farris and Representative S. D. Cochran came home from Frankfort Sunday, the Legislature having adjourned over Monday, a legal holiday. We have had occasion to keep posted on the movements of the present session, and are delighted to find that Garrard's representatives are among the most popular men in Frankfort, are highly respected and looked upon as among the most solid, safe men in the assembly.

Ed C. Gaines, has returned from a business trip to Nashville.

Mrs. Charles F. Denman, of Nicholasville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex West.

Judge R. A. Burnside, of the U. S. Marshal's office, Louisville, was at home a few days this week.

Judge and Mrs. R. A. Burnside spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lackey, at McCreary.

Mrs. Clay Dunn, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gully, has returned to her home in Bryantsville.

Fox Logan, who is attending school at Lexington, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. J. M. Logan and wife.

The Louisville paper speaks of Miss Christine Bradley as a popular member of the party which went to St. Louis to dedicate the Kentucky building.

Mr. G. S. Gaines, of Danville, made this office a pleasant call Monday, and told us the rib broken by a fall some weeks ago had healed nicely and would give him no further trouble.

Joe Arnold is weighing mail on Capt. Phil Price's "Cold Molasses Special." The Government is now having all mails weighed on the trains which will continue for a week or so, to get at the price to pay the railroad companies.

The Record office labored under serious difficulties Friday and Saturday, the bad weather "housing" Capt. White, and illness detaining Mr. Leonard Miller. The editor and the "angel" Miss Hatcher kept the wheels moving however. The loss of two hands for two days means trouble in a printing office.

The Frankfort cor. Courier Journal says:—"Miss Lydia Hundley and Mr. William Sandifer, of Covington were married at the home of her uncle, Mr. I. T. West, on the South Side, Tuesday afternoon." Mr. Sandifer, is the son of Mr. J. P. Sandifer and wife, is a bright popular business boy and resided here when quite young.

Dunlap, who went to Peoria, Ill., to take position of U. S. gauger. He has been very ill of rheumatism for some time, and late reports are not favorable to his recovery.

Mr. W. G. Kemper, the gentlemanly cashier of the Peoples Bank, Paint Lick, was here Monday, and made The Record office a pleasant call.

Danville News.—Miss Theo. Hemphill, of Lancaster, who is a general favorite in Danville, passed through this city today enroute to Hamilton College, Lexington.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Georgia Henry, of this city, to Dr. Elmore Rowland, at Little Rock last Thursday, was a great surprise to her many friends here. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Solon B. Henry of this city, and was one of Lancaster's most popular young ladies. The groom is a practicing physician of Eldorado, Ark. and a gentleman of ability and high standing. The Record joins many Lancaster friends in extending well-wishes for a long and happy life.

To Save Life.

Under the supervision of the Interstate Commission a bill is being prepared which if it becomes a law, will compel railroad companies to build stronger coaches and other passenger cars, with the exception of sleepers. The bill will be introduced by Representative Each, of Wisconsin, and will provide that all coaches and cars for passenger service shall be constructed with steel sleepers and steel sills. The American Railway Association has been asked to submit details which would be practical from a railroad standpoint, and every care is taken to have the measure such as will effect greater safety in construction. Before beginning the draft of the bill Representative Each made a long investigation, going thoroughly into the history of car construction. He conferred also with Government officials, who expressed the opinion that something should be done to prevent the break like egg shells in the event of a wreck, thereby causing a large death and casualty rate. It is asserted that the immunity from death and injury which passengers in sleeping cars enjoy is due largely to steel underframe construction, and it is understood that the construction of the present-day sleeping car will be taken as a standard. In this event all day coaches, smoking cars, buffet cars, chair and parlor cars will have to be built with extension steel beams and possibly be provided with steel platforms and non telescopic device. In view of the unusual number of lives sacrificed in railway wrecks the last year the urgent need of some such legislation is appreciated.

For Sale.

I will sell my property on Lexington street, a two-story, 8 room dwelling and all necessary out-buildings. The place contains 17 acres, well watered and well improved. For further particulars call on Theo. Currey, Jr. Mr. Theo. Currey.

McCREARY.

Mrs. Maggie Gully and son, Stanley were visitors of J. D. Gully and family of Bryantsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Walker of our city visited the family of John Walker Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Fannie Mae Miles, of Buckeye began a subscription school at Teatersville last week.

Mrs. W. K. Warner and Miss Ida Ray visited relatives in Lexington.

J. D. Hardin, of your city, visited at George Saddle's last week.

Messrs. Will and Elmer Hamm visited relatives last week.

J. T. Hardin and wife visited the latter aunt, Mrs. Mason Pullins, at Paint Lick.

Ottie Walker, son of Mrs. Lizzie Walker, was called by his reward last Friday morning at an early hour. He had started to Lexington in company with his brother, Wiley, and was taken sick on the road and returned home immediately and rapidly grew worse and lived only a few days. All that good physicians could do could not stay the monster death. He leaves a mother, three brothers and three sisters to mourn the loss of a bright, noble son and brother. He has gone to join his father and little Hobert, who have crossed on before. He was eighteen years of age and had been his mother's comfort and protector since his father's death. He became a Christian when quite young and has led a life that will be an example for other boys.

Good Spirits.

Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver—and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists.

NEW IDEA IN GATES.

Just the Thing for Cattle Pastures Where a Three-Wire Fence Confines the Stock.

The following is a description of a cheap and serviceable wire gate which will be found satisfactory, especially in places where a gate is not often used. It, of course, would not do for sheep or hogs, but will serve the purpose in cattle pastures, where a three-wire fence is sufficient to confine stock. Cut three wires each about a foot longer than the distance between the posts, and three short wires each six inches long. Form the short wires into loops and fasten to post (A), (B, B, B) with staples, the desired distance apart.

A STRONG WIRE GATE.

Hook the long wires (C, C, C) into the loops (B, B, B) so as to form hinges. Shape three boards each four feet long, as illustrated in D. Place a wire ratchet on each of these boards about six inches from the end (Fig. E, E, E), attach the other ends of the long wires to ratchets. Nail an inch board (Fig. G) four inches wide, the height of post to post (F). Nail another board (H) on top of this overlapping the first an inch or two. Drive a stake (I) inside of wire fence 3 1/2 feet from post (F). Nail three pieces of boards (J) each four feet long, on inside of post (F) and also inside of stake parallel to wires. Tighten up wires on ratchets (E, E, E) sufficient so that when each of the boards (D, D, D) are inserted into slot (H) and pushed back into position against J the wires will be taut. Three rings, one for each pair of boards, slipped over the ends, hold wires in proper position. If one would prefer four wires instead of three, another one can be added.—James Cotter, in Epitome.

CONCRETE ON THE FARM.

It Can Be Used Not Only for Cisterns and Floors But for Fence Posts Also.

There is little excuse for up to date farmers wading around in the mud, when concrete walks may be had around house and barn with a very small outlay of money, provided the man is handy and can do the work himself after a little instruction, says Rural New Yorker. Besides the making of walks concrete is being used in many other ways advantageously and economically. During the past season we have seen fence posts made from stone and concrete that are much cheaper than the cut stone post, and just as durable. The plan of making the posts was to dig down two feet into the ground, or perhaps deeper in soft ground, and then make a box the size of post wanted which was filled with the concrete and topped off according to fancy. When hinges or eyes were wanted for hanging gates holes were bored in the box and the eyes inserted before the filling was done, taking care to have same anchored well in the post. A concrete floor is easily made in houses built of stone or brick, and renders a residence practically fireproof. We saw floors of this kind made last season that seem to be perfect. A wooden floor is first made of rough lumber and on this is laid a wire cloth, in which the concrete is spread six inches thick. When it dries the wooden floor is removed and the concrete is self-sustaining. The concrete is made by mixing together Portland cement, sand and coal cinders. It is said to cost but little more than a first-class floor made of wood, including the joists. We have seen a number of cisterns made out of concrete, no brick being used for walling up. In making a cistern of this kind it is necessary to have a rough wooden wall made about three inches all around from the dirt and fill in space with concrete. After the wood wall is removed one coat of cement completes the cistern, and it is there for all time to come. The greatest objection to iron fence posts is that they are not solid in the ground, being so small. By using a bed of concrete and the base of all iron posts set in it will be found that they will stand as well as any other post.

Tell Just What You Know.

The average farmer lacks self-confidence. He hesitates in telling what he knows. At many a farmers' institute valuable experiences are lost because of this, the farmer feeling that some more experienced speaker can tell his story better. The fact is, the actual worker is more appreciated and can do more good, even though he cannot speak as gracefully. Do not hesitate, but get up and make a brief, compact statement of your experience.—Orange Judd Farmer.

Cattle Killed by Dainties.

A Pennsylvania Journal reports that breeders near Baltimore have lost $2,750 worth of prize cattle from feeding them old gingerbread and fruit cake. A too free indulgence of these delicacies cost the lives of 11 fine Herefords. It seems to be the custom of farmers of that county to buy such food by the ton to feed cattle and hogs in small quantities as fattening and milk-producing.

Showed It.

"I know that, you foolish boy."
"How?"
"You had it so carefully memorized."
—Chicago Tribune.

Force of Habit.

"Have you any printed oaths?" asked the lawyer's boy of the clerk in the stationery store.
"No, we're all out of printed oaths," replied the clerk; "but we've something just as good." —Yonkers Statesman.

When You Have a Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This Remedy liquefies the tough mucus and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration, and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Frisbie's Drug Store. 1m

Why Do This?

Why should the people of the cities pay such high rates for their beefsteaks and stews, when the stock growers receive only $4 to $5 per gross weight for their best stall fed beef? The price of beef in Chicago is now $3 less per hundred pounds than at this time last year, but there has been no perceptible reduction in the price to the consumers. Is it the meat combine that is keeping up the price of beef? The growers of cattle are not benefited, nor can the mechanics and laborers afford to pay such prices for fresh meats as are demanded in the city market houses. The price of hogs is $2 less per 100 weight than a year ago, and yet there has been no reduction in price to the consumer. The middle men are pocketing this extra $2, while the widow and her hungry children have to pay the price demanded or go without fresh meat.—Southern Agriculturist.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs M I Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child, Garland, is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Frisbie's Drug Store. 1m

The bachelor girl is seldom a good cook. If she were, she would not be a bachelor girl long.

Mysterious Circumstance.

One was pale and sallow and the other fresh and rosy. Whence the difference? She who is blushing with health uses Dr King's New Life Pills to maintain it. By gently arousing the lazy organs they compel good digestion and head off constipation. Try them. Only 25c at McRoberts Drug Store. 1m

A woman is never so jealous as when she explains that she does not know what jealousy is.

An Early Riser.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by F P Frisbie. 1m

A woman may be getting a little irritable societies and yet scold the cook for feeding the policeman.

Once there was a woman who did not believe every word in her love letters; but she never got any.

You can never make a girl who knows how to make angel cake believe she wouldn't be a useful wife.

If a man knows how to make his garden grow his wife can believe he knows how to do most anything.

When a woman gets into politics they will want to purchase votes for $1.98 and have trading stamps thrown in.

The man without reverence cannot win respect.

A Cure for Eczema.

My baby had Eczema so bad that its head was a solid mass of scabs, and its hair all came out. I tried many remedies but none seemed to do any permanent good until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The Eczema is cured the scabs are gone and the little one's scalp is perfectly clean and healthy and its hair is growing beautifully again. I cannot give too much praise to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Frank Farmer, Buffalo City, Ky. In buying Witch Hazel Salve look out for counterfeits. DeWitt's is the original and the only one containing pure Witch Hazel. The name E C DeWitt & Co. on every box. Sold by F Frisbie. 1m Lynchings.

The total number of lynchings for 1903 includes 92 in the South and 12 in the North; 86 negroes, 17 whites, and one Chinaman; 102 men and 2 women. The two principal alleged crimes were murder, 47 cases; and criminal assault, 20. Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi led the list with 11, 12, 14, and 18 respectively. Alabama, which used to be notorious for lynchings, had only two cases, and there were two Southern States, Maryland and Virginia, which had none.

SMALLPOX.

Sec. 4615. Patients having Small-Pox.—Care taken of. Every person superintending a hospital or other place where a patient having the small pox is confined, shall prohibit all intercourse therewith of persons not having had the disease, and shall, before discharging a patient, or suffering him to be removed, take due care that his person is thoroughly cleansed, and his clothes such as have not been infected with the disease, under the penalty of ten dollars.

Sec. 4416. Person going where Small-Pox prevails may be confined. If any person who has never had the small pox shall go into a house where the disease is, or associate with a person who is afflicted therewith, any justice of the peace, on due proof of the fact, may cause such person to be conveyed to some house or place in the county where the disease will not spread, there to remain until he shall have gone through the disease, or until a physician shall certify that he will not take the same. If such person be not able to pay the expense of his nursing, the county shall pay the same.

Sec. 4417. Penalty for willfully spreading. If any person shall willfully endeavor to spread or propagate the small-pox, he shall be subject to be indicted and fined the sum of five hundred dollars, or to be imprisoned for six months.

Sec. 4418. Penalty for person having Small-Pox going in public places. Anyone having reason at the time to believe himself afflicted with the disease of small-pox, shall voluntarily go upon any public highway or street or to any place at which people are accustomed to collect or assemble, or who shall enter or go on board any steamboat, railroad car or other public conveyance, and all persons who shall knowingly aid or assist any one thus to offend shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.
